DEDICATED TO . . .

ANN LOJKO

The yearbook staff has decided to dedicate this year's yearbook to

Ann Lojko for her unwavering support and service to Greensboro College. She has supported school, community, and athletic programs along with academics throughout the 24 years she has been employed at GC. "You shall be truly missed."

"I consider it a special privilege to have Ann Lojko as a close friend and co-worker. During my sixteen years as a part of the Business Office staff I have admired her devotion to Greensboro College. Her love and concern for students, staff and faculty is unsurpassed. I am pleased to share in this dedication to Ann."

Isabel Forrest

"As a Meredith angel, she cares about people and gets involved with them. Being a listener and confidant, she seems a cross between a nurse and a mamma. When forms need filling out or when faculty needs to be informed, she is always there to help and remind us. She's a "Lynch-pin" holding everything together. She's not only intelligent but professional!"

Dr. James Hull

“Anne Lojko seems to be loyal to the college, observant of the needs of others; judicious in her treatment of requests she has to weigh; keen in understanding of matters in her competence — obedient to the biblical admonition to cast one’s bread on the waters — it be returned to her sevenfold.”

Glenn Grayson

“She has worked here since 1965 when she was first hired in the Business Office. That’s 24 years! Most people today would never dream of staying at one place that long, but she did because she cares for Greensboro College. Many of her friends; faculty, staff, and students have come and gone, but so many are still here. I know because I hear her talk about them. I also hear the pain when things do not go the way she would like, but I always hear true love behind it all. You do not develop that much love in a few years, it develops over time. She will retire at the end of this year. That will end her employment at GC, but it will never end her love for GC. She is the most honest, dedicated, and caring person I know. She knows GC and that will be missed most. Although someone else will be hired for her job, no one will ever replace her. Luckily for me I will still have her around. You deserve this honor Mom.”

CLASH OF THE CLASSES

The first Clash of the Classes consisted of three out of four classes competing. Some of the events included a pie eating contest, won by Tim Guter. Other games included were volleyball, hop-a-long, a frisbee and football toss; the day ended with a tug-of-war. The competition was tough, but fun. The seniors came in third, the freshman second and the junior class with the overall win.

WINTER ROSE

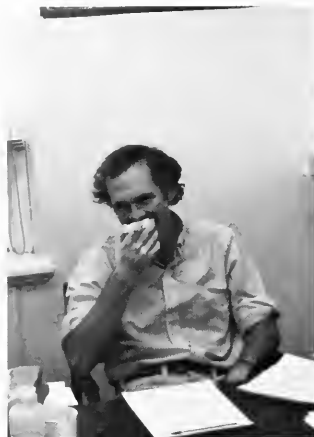

TIS THE SEASON . . .

Christmas is a special time at G.C. For a short time the pressure of exams is relieved by a special dinner and chapel service. This year, dinner and pictures with Santa Claus were available. The faculty, staff, students and their families enjoyed a chapel service with the chorale showing off their hard work. The campus was glowing with good cheer when the evening ended by singing "Silent Night" by the fountain.

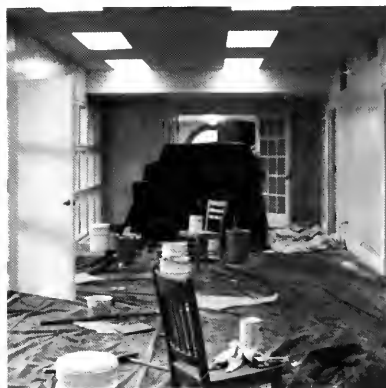

WHAT'S

There have been many controversial changes at G.C. The new athletic field was just one of those changes. To make room for the field, the Student Affairs building was demolished. The library was the recipient of a much needed reconstruction. We received a new Dean of Student Affairs, many know her as "Dean Tiffany". Much controversy was created when she moved into West Dorm. Hopefully Greensboro College is moving ahead without leaving tradition behind.

NEW!

CONVOCATION

Greensboro College begins each semester with their academic convocation in order to recognize those students with outstanding academic achievements.

The Spring Convocation began with the procession of faculty in their academic regalia. Following an invocation by Howard D. Sherrill, Jr., greetings were given by William S. Jones, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and others. Dean Vanderwerff followed with the academic recognitions.

The key speaker of the Spring Convocation was Dr. Howard C. Wilkinson, G.C. Pres., 1972-81. His address was entitled "Directions for a New Day."

Dr. Mayes had the honor of participating at the ground breaking ceremony.

UNITED WE STAND

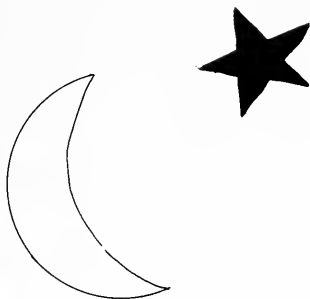

For the first time at G.C. there were events the entire day celebrating Martin Luther King's Birthday. The inspiring MLK was remembered through a service held in the chapel, skits and speeches by students and Dr. Archibong and several speakers. The day was an important one at G.C., it was a reminder to all of us that prejudice needs to be fought for all oppressed people.

BASEMENT BEACH BLAST

On January 28th the Student Ambassadors rocked College Place in the first ever West Dorm Basement Beach Blast. GC students packed the basement of the men's dorm and danced the night away in full beach gear while 600 watts of building, shaking music and mixed drinks kept things going strong.

DANCE CONTEST

Friday, Feb. 24, 1989 GC students kicked off their shoes and did the "GC Beat." Due to the cancelling of the Homecoming Dance, SGA bounced back and brought us "The Dance Contest." Students who danced for three straight hours split $100. In the end, the 20+ students danced the whole time and received $5.

CASINO

It's not Las Vegas . . . but it's fun! The stu provided an outlet for all those closet card sharks. The stakes were high. Players won and lost small fortunes, playing games such as, Blackjack, craps, roulette, and a crazy-zany car race. Dealers made the evening quite authentic by skillfully coaxing those who pass by to play a game or two. The prizes varied from posters to sweatshirts. Jeff Whipple was lucky enough to win a $25.00 gift certificate to Daryls.

NIGHT

OUTSIDE INFORMATION

Educational, social and political issues were topics addressed by three distinguished speakers. Through the consortium, G.C. students were invited to inciteful and informative lectures.

Juan Williams inspired students in a informal question and answer session.

Alice Selesky spoke from her heart on the subject of education.

G.C. awarded the Ambassador to the Soviet Union, Jack Matlock, an honorary degree.

Students, faculty and community members crowded the chapel to listen to Ambassador Jack Matlock.

MUSICAL REVIEW 1989

The Musical Revue was presented on April 13, 14, and 15. Directing the Revue was Mr. Leonard Hart. He was assisted by Dr. Jane McKinney and Ms. Terri Rotunda. Dr. McKinney and Ms. Rotunda conducted the Stage Band and Chorale. Dr. McKinney sang as well. The choreography was done by Charles Johnson, Cathy Haskins, and Bill Newton. Mr. Johnson, who also sang, graduated from G.C. in 1981. Cathy Haskins and Bill Newton were both guests of G.C. Staff and faculty were a big help to the production. Of course, the heart of the show was the students. The students worked hard in preparation. In the end, it all came together. The curtain rose; the show began. Let us give those involved a big hand!

ALUMNI

During the annual Alumni weekend, students and perspective students ate in the gym due to rain. Faculty and alumni ate buffet style in the cafeteria.

A FAREWELL TO FRIENDS

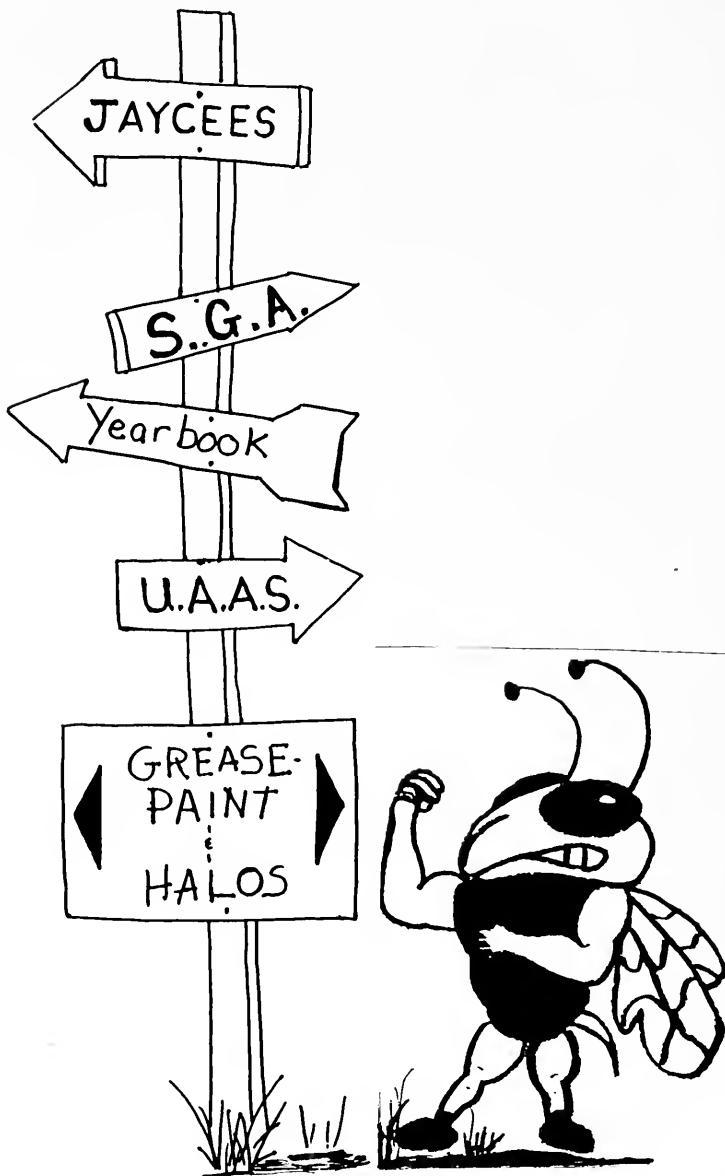

On Friday, April 20th, a large portion of the student body marched through main building. The march was a protest against present administration's policies and decisions. One of those decisions being to pressure

Wayne Stegall and Leslie Bryan to resign. Wayne has shown his dedication to GC students for the past ten years and Leslie six. We will miss them terribly and feel our loss is a great one.

Records were set for the most wins (13), fewest losses (4), most goals (62), and fewest goals allowed (15) in a season. The Hornets also put together an eleven game unbeaten streak and the highest regional ranking (#4) in the school's history.

The Hornets were led, by leading scorer, senior Hal Adams, who placed on the All-Conference 1st Team. The season was truly a success after Coach Doug Hamilton was awarded Conference Coach of the Year.

PASS! SET! KILL!

The Greensboro College women's volleyball team finished their season with a second place finish in the conference tournament after completing the regular season in second place.

Highlights of the season included a 9-3 Dixie Conference mark, placing 2nd in the Mary Washington Tournament and finishing second in the DIAC regular season and the DIAC tournament. These great wins came from the help of Laura Brown who was awarded 1st team

All-Conference, Tina Leonard, who won 2nd Team All-Conference and also on the DIAC All Tournament team, and Daphne Hand who was named to the 2nd Team All-Conference as well.

Luckily, for Coach Jean Lojko and the team, this great season is only a start to the future since none of this years starters will be leaving.

Unfortunate injury for Senior Gina Inman.

Above, Volleyball players use many of their long trips to get in some extra education.

Teamwork was essential to the girls' success.

What did you call?

The Hornets ended the regular season in fifth place with a 12-13 record over all and 6-6 in the conference. Junior Jeff Dastmalchian was the only representative of Greensboro College on the All-Tournament Team this season. Dasmalchian led the Hornets in both scoring and rebounding with averages of 17.7 ppg. and 6.3 rebounds per game. Russell Anderson, the only senior, was second leading scorer, averaging 13.7 ppg. and 6.3 rebounds. Junior Kevin Besecker was next averaging 13.6 ppg. Something that head coach, Jim Tribbett, looks forward to is the abundance of talent and faces returning next season.

UP TO PAR

The typical golfer's pose.

The G.C. golf team has played up to par this year. They finished 3rd in tournaments at James Madison University and at Naval Academy. In the 1989 Dixie Conference, G.C. finished 2nd to Methodist by one stroke.

HIT EM' HARD

Cathy winding up; Beth behind ready to go.

The 1989 softball season was not very successful. This was due to not being able to practice on campus because of the construction of the new athletic field. Another reason being, the majority of this year's team were first year players. Next year, the team will be more experienced and the season more promising.

Wendy warms up while Jill and Carolynn give congratulations.

Taking a breather in between games.

Cathy gets things started.

Coach Stockton contemplates the play.

I got it!

STROKING

Although the final record does not reflect a great change, 2nd year head coach Scott Groninger feels the team improved greatly and is very pleased with the prospects for the future.

Team MVP Clay Yancey, #2 seed, finished the season strongly at 7-4. Teamed up with junior Raul Ascarrunz, sophomore Cliff Abare, freshman Rob Seltzer and Adam Stoffolano to boost the Hornets to a 5th place finish.

Coach Groninger plans his best strategy.

THE END

Being Editor this year, was a new job for me and I was unsure if I could fulfill my responsibility. However, I had a great staff and advisor. Thanks Coach Lojko for all your support and dedication. I would like to thank Janine Bracco, my Asst.-Editor and photographer, for putting up with me; (*#!#, Babe). Kelly O'Toole, Tammy Fain, Amy Britt, and Natalie Zepp — Thanks for all your help; you were appreciated. A special thanks to Lee Ancheta for all your wonderful artwork — We owe you! Thanks also to Chris McArdle for making our last deadline a little bit easier.

Thanks Again,

Editor Becky Petras

I would like to thank Becky Petras, Coach Lojko and the rest of the yearbook staff for putting up with my bad captions and over-exposed pictures. I am sorry if events or persons did not get photographed. I hope to be more organized next year. I'm glad that yearbook gave me the opportunity to make roadtrips and meet some very special people! Special thanks to Chris McArdle and Lee Ancheta.

Love Ya

Janine E Bracco

Assistant Editor
